Essentials of Construction Arbitration 29 April 2022 (Fri)

Disputes are inevitable in construction contracts. Some may be resolved through negotiation but some may end up in arbitration or litigation. Therefore, it is of utmost importance for a construction professional like you to grasp the essentials of the entire arbitration process in order to perform your duties and obligations.

Typical questions that may arise include:

- “Should the dispute be referred to arbitration or litigation?”
- “How should the arbitrator be chosen?”
- “Can the disputes be truncated into different arbitrations?”
- “What are interlocutory applications?”
- “Should we find an expert?”
- “Can the cost be recovered if the arbitration is successful? If so, how much?”
- “Is the award final and binding? Is there any chance for appeal?”
